

Statement on Lobbying

MyPup does not engage in lobbying activities. We do not seek to influence public policy, legislation, or political decision-making on behalf of our company, nor do we employ or contract lobbyists to do so.

When we participate in public discussions, industry collaborations, or conversations with stakeholders, we do so solely to share knowledge, exchange best practices, and contribute openly to discussions on sustainability and logistics. We do not advocate for specific political decisions or regulatory outcomes.

MyPup remains committed to operating with integrity, neutrality, and transparency in all interactions with public and private stakeholders.
